Golf in schools in Full-Swing

The Colorado PGA Golf in Schools Program is a collaborative effort between the founding associations of the Colorado Section PGA, Colorado Open Golf Foundation, Colorado Golf Association, Colorado Women's Golf Association and Rocky Mountain Golf Course Superintendents' Association. GIS introduces school age children across the state to the game of golf and the valuable life skills it teaches.

This spring, we're lined up to be in several schools in our community:

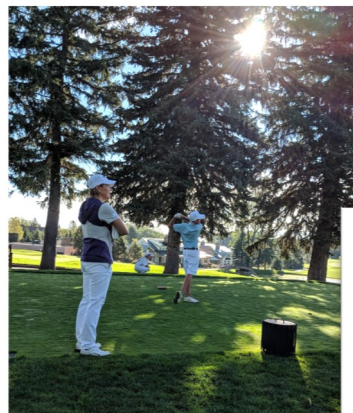

- John Amesse Elementary
- Lena Archuleta Elementary
- Highpoint Academy
- Kearney Middle School

- Highline Academy
- Adams City Middle School
- Florida Pitt Waller K-8
- KIPP Middle School
- Omar D Blair K-8
